

Rain Barrel Workshop

Rain Brothers

Would you like to safely and efficiently conserve water and reduce your water bills? As part of the City's ongoing effort to encourage environmental stewardship and water conservation, the City is offering residents the opportunity to purchase rain barrels at a discount in this rain barrel education class. Learn the importance of local water conservation techniques and how to reuse rain water. Attendance at the workshop is required to receive a barrel. Rain barrels are given out at the end of the workshop. There are two style of rain barrels available, and a choice of colors. When registering, please choose carefully, as we are unable to make exchanges, substitutions or refunds.

Computers

Mac and i

Gregg Montgomery

Learn how to get the most out of your Mac computer, exploring the basics of using your Mac and organizing your files. We discuss a few of the programs that come with your Mac - Mail, Address Book, iCal, Safari, iPhoto and iMovie. Don't worry if your Mac isn't brand new, the principles still apply. Bring either your MacBook or a pen and notebook to class. We have plenty of time for questions. Week 1 focuses on system basics, system preferences and Dashboard. Develop an understanding of how your Mac works, how to personalize your Mac, and navigate the Finder. We also learn about Safari to surf the Web and organize bookmarks.

Mail, Contacts & Calendars

Gregg Montgomery

Week 2 focuses on using Mail, Contacts and Calendar. These programs work together in a unique way to help you use email, keep a record of all your important contacts and create a digital calendar. We also look at how to better make use of Mail by using stationary, making attachments easier, and dealing with spam.

iPhoto

Gregg Montgomery

Week 3 focuses on just one program; iPhoto, which is used for organizing and working with all your photos. This program is more powerful than you can imagine. We explore the many things it can do to help us enjoy managing and manipulating our pictures.

iMovie

Gregg Montgomery

What iPhoto does for pictures, iMovie does for short movie clips. No reason to be intimidated by the idea of video editing, iMovie is a lot of fun and not as difficult as it may seem. iMovie lets us import those short video clips taken on your camera, stitch them together, add special effects, and then share at a party, or archive for later enjoyment.

iPad Basics Workshop

Gregg Montgomery

Learn to get the most out of your iPad. Session 1 focuses iPad basics, physical features, typing tips, customizing your iPad and maintenance issues. We also cover how to update the software to enjoy some of the newer features. Session 2 focuses on iTunes (whether PC or Mac) to sync media over your iPad. We also discuss iCloud, what it does and how to set it up. Session 3 introduces Skype and Facetime, both great ways to keep in contact with friends and family via video conferencing. We also look at using Siri (iPads 3 or 4 only) and look at some great apps you may not yet have discovered.
