

Ohio's Most Prestigious Golf Address

Dublin's 18 Most Memorable Moments in Golf*

1 Jack Nicklaus tours land in Dublin that later becomes Muirfield Village Golf Club (1966).

3 Paul Azinger chips in from an 18th hole bunker to beat Payne Stewart by one stroke in the Memorial Tournament (1993).

2 Dublin Jerome High School's boys and girls golf teams win back-to-back state championships (2011-12).

4 Tiger Woods chips in on the 16th hole on his way to his fifth win at the Memorial Tournament and his 73rd PGA TOUR victory tying Nicklaus for second in all-time PGA TOUR wins (2012).

7 Tiger Woods wins his third consecutive Memorial Tournament (2001).

6 Nicklaus, Ivor Young, Pandel Savic and Bob Hoag play the first round of golf at Muirfield Village Golf Club (1973).

5 The Presidents Cup to be held at Muirfield Village Golf Club, making the course and Dublin the only place in the world to host The Ryder Cup, The Solheim Cup and The Presidents Cup (2013).

8 The United States women's team beats Europe to win the Solheim Cup at Muirfield Village Golf Club (1998).

10 Europe upsets the United States in the Ryder Cup at Muirfield Village Golf Club (1987).

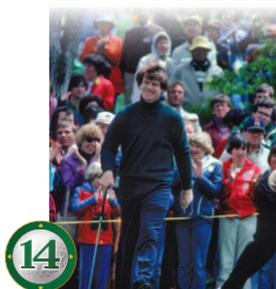

9 The City of Dublin and the Dublin Arts Council commissioned the tribute to Jack Nicklaus sculpture (1998).

11 The Golf Club of Dublin opens (2002).

15 Justin Leonard wins the USGA's U.S. Amateur Championship at Muirfield Village Golf Club (1992).

14 Tom Watson wins the Memorial after shooting a 69 in rain, wind and a wind-chill of 13 degrees on the second day of the Tournament (1979).

13 Dublin Coffman High School wins its first boys golf state championship (1977).

12 Golf is introduced to Dublin with the opening of Bash Recreation Driving Range and executive golf course (1964).

16 Lorena Ochoa wins the final LPGA's Wendy's Championship for Children at Tartan Fields Golf Club (2006).

17 Roger Maltbie wins the inaugural Memorial Tournament (1976).

18 Riviera Golf Club opens and is future host of the LPGA's Borden Classic (1970).

*In order, as voted by the citizens of Dublin, Ohio, USA.

