

GINGERBREAD HOUSES (ALL AGES)

Instructor: Laura Finley

Laura Finley is a Registered and Licensed Dietician and has many years' experience as a culinary instructor and home cooking consultant. Her goal for the youth cooking classes is to provide a fun, safe, creative and engaging kitchen experience that will teach kids where food comes from, seasonality of food, how to use more "real food" while trying to minimize processed food and general food and nutrition information.

Meeting Date/Times/Location

- Saturday, Dec 7, 10:30 a.m. – noon, Arts & Crafts Room
- Wednesday, Dec 11, 7 – 8:30 p.m., Arts & Crafts Room

Program Overview

Join us and get up to your elbows in icing and candies creating yummy gingerbread houses with your family. Each participant registered receives one gingerbread house for as many family members as would like to work together.

Program Expectations for Parents

This is a family event and parent participation is required.

Program Fees/Supplies/Dress

There is one class each session. The program fee is $30 for Residents and $40 for School District & Non-Residents. Fees include all supplies and materials. Enrollment deadline is one week before the program so food supplies can be purchased. Dress casually in clothing that could get dirty. Short sleeves and fitted clothing should be worn for safety and ease of cooking. For additional houses (ie: a house for each sibling) there is an additional $15 fee. Please contact Jennifer Vosters at 614.410.4573 to register additional family members.
