

Decoding Wedding Planning Timeline: Package

Decoding Wedding Planning Timeline: Package

The traditional twelve month wedding planning timeline can be overwhelming for a couple to tackle on their own. This class breaks down the timeline into three, manageable four month sections and provide tips and tricks for finding vendors, DIY projects, planning on a budget, and commonly forgotten tasks. Participants may choose to register for the package (which includes all three classes) OR can choose to only register for the class(s) that correspond to their current phase of planning.

Meet the Decoding Wedding Planning Timeline instructor Susan Knapik

Susan Knapik has been a wedding coordinator in Columbus for three years. She is the owner and head coordinator for The Wedding Assistant of Columbus. Prior to moving to Columbus, Susan and her husband served as captains in the U.S. Army. Her experiences in the military, particularly those as a General's Aide, coupled with her background in design and communication, provide her with a unique set of highly developed and well-rounded skills: attention to detail, excellent communication, and problem solving and ideation. Everyone's visions and needs for their wedding are different, so having someone to bounce ideas off of, or walk you through the whole planning process, or manage wedding day details is an invaluable service Susan offers.
