Bring your little ones on the first Wednesday of each month to Kaltenbach Park and play with us! Each month we celebrate a new theme, complete with age appropriate toys, games, and crafts that families are welcome to join in at their pace. Parent participation required.

One $10 fee pays for a Wacky Wednesday Pass that will be provided to families at the first session they attend.

Pre-registration is required (registration unavailable onsite).
Pass sales begin December 21!
