Bicycle & Pedestrian Safety

Tina Wawszakiewicz, Civil Engineer

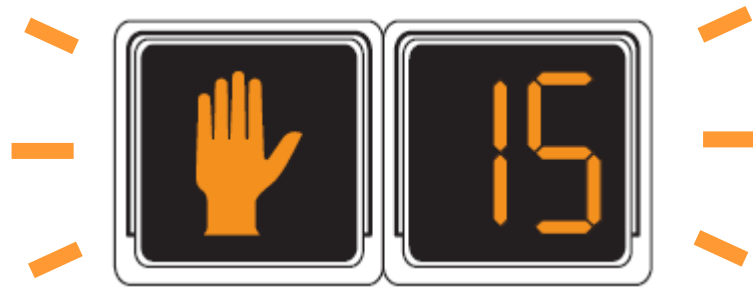

Why?

- Streets = 13% of the City of Dublin
- Public space where all types of travel occur
- Healthy Dublin! Use active transportation:
 - Walk and bike for your health
 - Reduce emissions for everyone's health
- Set a good example

When you walk...

- Every trip starts and ends as a pedestrian
- Be visible and predictable to drivers

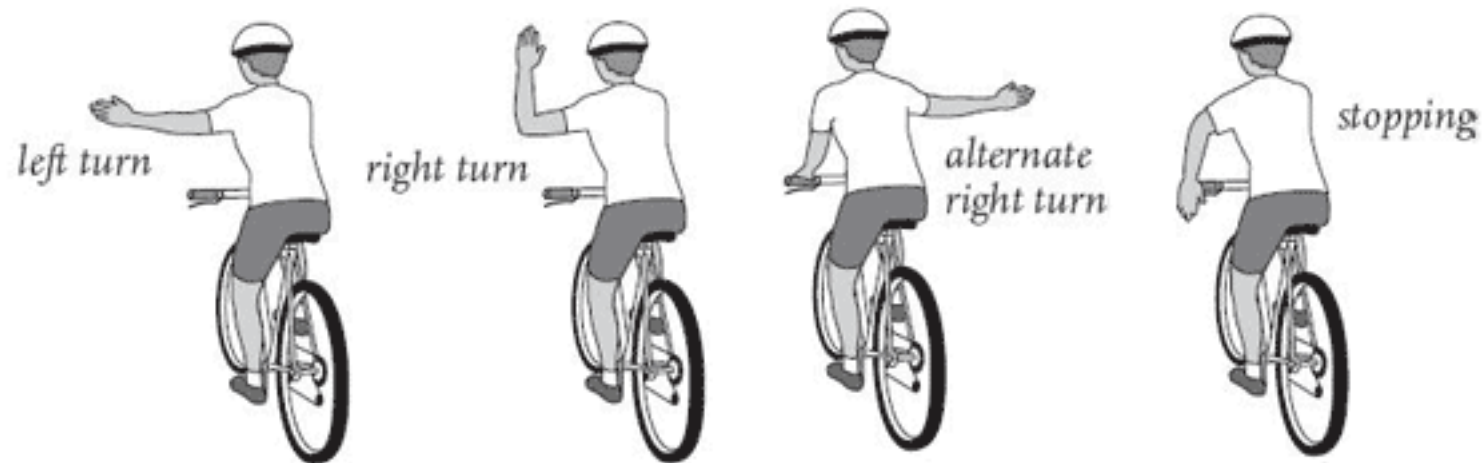

When you walk...

When you bicycle...

- Be visible and predictable to drivers
- Follow traffic laws as a vehicle in the street

When you drive...

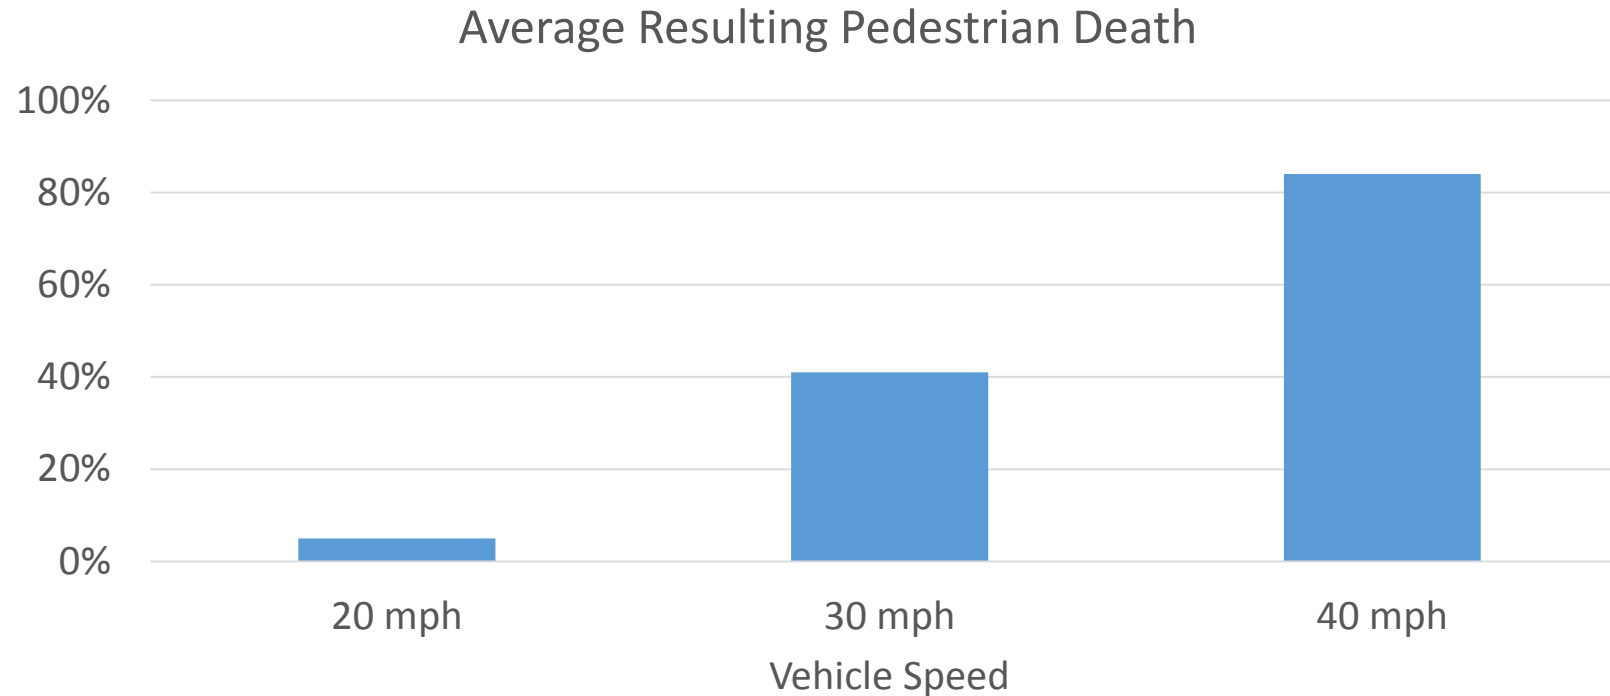

- Set a good example; it is a privilege to drive
- Look both ways before turning

Roundabout Recap

- When you drive
 - Choose your lane prior to the approach
 - Stay in your lane and yield to pedestrians and vehicles already circulating
- When you bike
 - Walk your bike as a pedestrian in crosswalks, ride on the recreation paths; only expert riders should ride through
- When you walk
 - Focus on crossing one direction of travel at a time
 - Use the splitter island as a refuge

Be Smart. Stay Safe.

Keeping Crime Low in Dublin

Theft Prevention

- 1) Remove valuables from your vehicles and lock your doors.
- 2) Park in a well lit area.
- 4) Keep an eye and ear out for suspicious or unusual activity.
- 5) Call the police immediately (911 or 614-889-1112) if you witness a crime or if you witness something suspicious.

Avoid Burglary

- 1) Keep your garage door closed in the evening and at night.
- 2) Lock your doors and windows when you are not home or when you are home for the evening.
- 3) If you have a residential alarm system, use it.
- 4) If you plan to be out of town for vacation, sign up for the vacation house watch program.
- 5) Keep an eye and ear out for suspicious or unusual activity.
- 6) Call the police immediately (911 or 614-889-1112) if you witness a crime or if you witness something suspicious.

WARNING SIGNS VISIBLE TRAITS OF A HEROIN ADDICT

The infographic shows a woman with various warning signs of heroin addiction labeled on her body:

- Droopy Appearance: Eyes will close and jolt awake, arms and legs will appear as if they are heavy
- Irregular Pupils: Constricted pupils are a telltale sign of a heroin high, users withdrawing from heroin typically have dilated pupils
- Avoids Eye Contact: A heroin user will display typically nervous behavior
- Runny Nose: Users who snort heroin can appear to have a chronic cold
- Bad Hygiene: A decline in personal hygiene and appearance is common with heroin addiction, as is an uncaring attitude about such things
- Long Sleeves: To hide track marks at injection sites in the arms
- Skin Picking: Heroin causes the body to release histamine, leading to itchy skin
- Weight Loss: Due to its appetite suppression affects, dramatic, rapid weight loss is common, as is malnutrition.
- Missing Shoelaces: Used to tie off injection sites
