Mr. Noble remarked about Saturday's event at Pat Monahan Park.

5. 2024 Meeting Dates

Ms. Blake introduced the dates for the 2024 Veteran's Committee and asked for any input. Ms. Blake pointed out that the July meeting date is during Council's recess however Mr. Reiner commented that the July date is not an issue for him.

Mr. Noble noted that every other month seemed like a good schedule to keep and motioned to approve the 2024 meeting dates, Mr. Kehoe seconded.

6. Military Round Table

Mr. Noble noted that the next military roundtable is set for November 27th, 1:00-2:00 PM at the Dublin Community Recreation Center. He reminded the Committee that Ret. Col. Bruce Ware would be the speaker.

7. Dublin Coffman High School's Veteran's Support Club

Mr. Noble introduced Emerson Eickholt and Keegan Blevins to talk about the Veteran's Support Club at Coffman High School.

Ms. Eickholt gave an update regarding the club and outlined their first few meetings. She highlighted the club's application for the Purple Star designation and the work that goes into the application. She also remarked about organizing a military appreciation night at a school basketball game. One final goal she spoke about was the efforts to erect a military student wall that honors students who served in the military.

Mr. Blevins noted that it is unlikely that the Purple Star Club could happen this year due to time constraints but the ground work would be in place for upcoming classes.

Mr. Clifton asked if the student needed any help from the committee members.

Mr. Blevins asked if the members knew of any staff that were veterans or military adjacent and would be willing to help support student efforts.

Mr. Noble suggested that the student ask administration for help in finding staff that would support the clubs.

3:30-5:00 PM

Ms. Eickholt noted that they were working with Vice Principals to find staff support but remarked that it was a slow moving process.

Mr. Clifton asked what the requirements are for a liaison.

Ms. Eickholt explained that they need to be a Coffman staff member and go through the required training.

Mr. Blevins noted that the required training was off-putting to staff members.

Mr. Clifton was hopeful that a Dublin City Schools staff would step up to do the training and assist the club.

Ms. Gamary gave a few tips regarding securing help and assistants for the club and highlighted the importance of alumni networks.

Ms. Eickholt asked Ms. Gamary about the time commitment surrounding the Purple Heart training.

Ms. Gamary noted that it was under two-hours and was not excessive.

Ms. Blake asked Ms. Eickholt to share the date of the Military Appreciation Night so she could share it with Dublin Veterans.

8. Dublin Scioto High School's Veteran Initiatives

Mr. Noble introduced Gabe Shaw and Claire Miller from Dublin Scioto's Purple Heart Club.

Mr. Shaw and Ms. Miller introduced themselves and shared a presentation regarding the Purple Heart Club and the schools Purple Heart Designation. They shared some of their sponsorship opportunities, care package initiatives, and other military support programs.

Mr. Shaw asked the committee if there were any questions.

Mr. Kehoe asked if Purple Star Club was started at Dublin Scioto.

Ms. Gamary noted that the school received a designation from the Ohio Department of Education in 2022, staff then looked for opportunities to engage students. From this point, students formed a Purple Heart Club to support Veterans.

Ms. Miller noted that she had several family members that were veterans and had a desire to give back to the veteran community.

Mr. Shaw also said that he had several veteran family members.

Ms. Garmy highlighted a handout from the students club which outlines future veteran's activities.

9. Veterans Affairs

Ms. Blake went over current federal legislation related to veterans.

10. New Business

Mr. Noble highlighted the Legions yearly fundraiser, which is a viewing event for the Army vs. Navy game. The event takes place at the Westerville Winking Lizard and invited the group to join. As part of the event, Mr. Noble mentioned an auction and listed a few of the items being auctioned off.

Mr. Parkhill thanked staff and students for the handmade cards.

Mr. Clifton talked about The Hero Hut and sponsorships. He asked if there were ongoing efforts to find veteran owned businesses to help sponsor the Hero Hut.

Ms. Blake noted that she reached out to the Dublin Chamber of Commerce to see if there was a current list of veteran owned businesses, which there is not.

Mr. Noble said that this would be a good topic for the next meeting and asked everyone to think of suggestions on how to approach businesses.

Mr. Kehoe noted that the Columbus Chamber of Commerce and Columbus Business First may also have comprehensive lists of veteran owned businesses.

Mr. Clifton highlighted that registration is not compulsory so the lists may not be comprehensive but it is worth looking for. He asked if he could contact the Chamber.

Ms. Blake noted that the action should come directly from the committee and said that she would reach out to a few others to find a list of veteran owned businesses.
