

Dublin Historical Society's Second Sunday Speaker Series

Series sponsored by the Dublin Branch of the Columbus Metropolitan Library

All programs begin at 3:00 pm and end at 4:30 pm (including a Q&A). They will be held in the lower level meeting room at Dublin Branch of the Columbus Metropolitan Library, 75 N. High Street, Dublin

Sunday, March 8

Dr. Mark Stechschulte MD, a retired gastroenterologist, presents Tracing the History of Medicine in Dublin, Ohio: An examination of five community physicians and the common health concerns, illnesses, and health crises Dublin faced from its founding until the mid-1960s.

Sunday, April 12

Dr. Sarah K Douglas PhD, a senior lecturer at The Ohio State University, presents The American Revolution: How a fledgling Continental Army grew, adapted, and persevered to win America's independence.

Sunday May 10

Dan Sullivan, Executive Director of the Memorial Tournament, and Dave Shedloski, Editor of The Memorial magazine, team up to present 50th Anniversary of the Memorial Tournament: Key moments in tournament history and Jack Nicklaus' inspiration behind creating Muirfield Village Golf Club.

Sunday, June 14

Kathleen Fulmer Waller, past regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) Ann Simpson Davis Chapter, presents Honoring Our Patriot Ancestors: A brief history of the DAR including contributions of the Ann Simpson Davis Chapter and highlights of other local patriots.

Sunday, July 12

David Gerhardt, veteran and author of Vietnam: The Last Combat Marines, presents The Incredible Story of Winifred Breegle: A naval cryptographer from 1944 until 1949.

To register for a program,
scan the QR code or type
in our website address:
DublinOhioHistory.org

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

