

Appendix A — Illustrative Examples of Children’s Clubhouses and Playhouses Within Donegal Cliffs

The following images are provided solely to illustrate the common presence, scale, appearance, and recreational use of children’s clubhouses and playhouses throughout the Donegal Cliffs subdivision. The images represent a small sample of the total number of Children’s Clubhouses and Playhouses within Donegal Cliffs.

These materials are submitted to demonstrate consistency of use and neighborhood character and to provide contextual information regarding how recreational accessory structures have historically been present within the subdivision. It is unknown whether any of the structures depicted received prior approval from the City of Dublin.

The applicants are not requesting enforcement action against other property owners, and these materials are submitted only as supporting context for the administrative appeal.
