Department Profile

Support Services Bureau

The Community Education Unit (CEU) operated successfully in 2016. Due to temporary staffing concerns across the Department, the CEU stepped up to cover many patrol shifts in order to reduce overtime and provide some relief for officers in the operations bureau. Adding Officer Burks in the fall afforded the unit the ability to once again provide SROs in each Middle School as well as provide APP, PDP, Stranger Danger and ALICE courses for the schools and the community. Capping off these presentations was the Active Threat video written and produced by the CEU in 2016.

The CEU presented the Drug Abuse Prevention Program to over 2500 students while providing various other educational programs as well. The unit continued its partnership with Maria's Message while partnering with WBNS channel 10 Television for presentations. The CEU also participated in the City of Dublin Town Hall meeting which addressed the growing heroin epidemic in Central Ohio. The unit provided 27 Active Shooter presentations to the City's corporate partners and the driving Simulators were deployed 20 times to various locations and events within the City. The CEU added a stranger danger presentation through a partnership with the Dublin Recreation Center. While this program was only presented 3 times in the fall of 2016 it was filled to capacity during each presentation.

The Detective Bureau saw the retirement of Detective Scott Davis and the addition of Detective Andrea Shull. Prior to her appointment Andrea had been assisting the Detective Bureau on a temporary basis conducting background investigations and working criminal cases. Andrea brought with her a significant amount of training which enabled her to assume a full case load immediately. Jake Williams has been appointed as the fifth detective and assumed this position in January. Detective Gilleland continues to participate in the FBI's Child Exploitation Task Force.

The bureau successfully cleared 44% of the burglaries/B&Es in 2016. The clearance rate for thefts from vehicles was 39%, while the overall clearance rate for cases was 34%. The detectives continue to assist the CIU Investigators as well as each unit within the department to address crime concerns in the City.

In 2016 the Community Impact Unit Investigator Kyle Groves was named the newest member of the CIU and began his assignment in January. Additionally, on May 31, Investigator Joel Hall began his full-time assignment with the Delaware County Drug Task Force.

In 2016 the Traffic Enforcement officers were reduced from five to four with the elimination of the canine position. The four remaining officers made 1,454 traffic stops, issued 980 traffic citations and were assigned five (5) formal traffic complaints. These four officers effectively investigated 73 informal complaints, as well as all departmentally received school bus complaints (34). Additionally, traffic officers maintained presence in enforcement in six designated "maintenance zones" throughout the year. These included: Glick Road, Muirfield Drive (north of Brand Road), Shier Rings Road, Woerner-Temple Road, Rings Road (west of Avery Road), Summit view Road. Traffic officers were tasked throughout the year with additional assignments in support of CIU Investigators. These assignments included: plain clothes surveillance and operations, security for controlled purchases, warrant service, and search warrant execution and processing. Lastly, Officers Sterling and Brown were assigned for several months as background investigators in support of an officer new hire process.

The CIU Investigators engaged in proactive investigations using a combination of criminal intelligence, human and technical surveillance, undercover operations and standard investigative techniques. Investigators were assigned 24 Projects in 2016 of which 58% resulted in successful clearance by arrest, charge, or Grand Jury summary submitted. It should be noted that three cases from 2016 remain open. With a full time member assigned to the Delaware County Drug Task force, investigators have had the opportunity to assist in a mutual aid capacity with surveillance operations, controlled purchases, and search warrant execution throughout the year. Additionally, investigators provided Hilliard PD with assistance on surveillance and search warrant execution multiple times during 2016.

During 2016, CIU began a few initiatives in order to provide enhanced protection and service to the City of Dublin. First, the unit began utilizing the Ohio State Highway Patrol's Aviation Unit for both targeted traffic enforcement (e.g., highway construction zones, State Route 161 and State Route 257 roundabout) and surveillance. Additionally, with assistance from detectives with the Franklin County H.O.P.E. Task Force and in collaboration with the Franklin County Prosecutor's Office, CIU investigators began investigation into non-fatal drug overdoses in hopes of combatting suppliers of illegal narcotics.

Community Service Officers

In 2016 the Community Service Officer (CSO) Program entered its fourth year serving the City of Dublin as a team of skilled volunteers. The mission of the CSO Program continues to be focused on serving as an example of community partnership by deploying a volunteer force that enhances the department's ability to achieve its goals. The Unit began the year with 15 members however three members resigned from the unit during the course of the year. All three members resigned due to health, time constraints or change in volunteer priorities. No new members were added this year due to budget constraints and unit size. The following information summarizes the unit's efforts to assist the Dublin Division of Police in achieving unit and divisional goals.

Use of Force

Use of force reports are used to document bodily force by means of a defensive tactic or technique or any other bodily force to overcome resistive tension. Minor hand to hand control techniques, such as handcuffing, physically touching, or gripping to overcome minor resistive tension, shall be reported on an incident report or narrative of the arrest form. Use of force reports are also used to document the use of a less lethal and/or lethal weapon (in the course of a use of force). Any bodily force, use of a less lethal weapon, or use of a lethal weapon resulting in an injury must be reported on a use of force report.

Use of Force Incidents

Use of Force	2014	2015	2016
Use of Force Incidents	10	5	9
Use of Force Reports	23	9	17

In 2016, nine (9) use of force incidents occurred that resulted in seventeen (17) use of force reports being filed. It should be noted that in some years, more reports were filed than total number of incidents due to more than one officer using force out of a single incident in some, but not all cases. The number of use of force incidents has flucuated slightly over the past three years.

Injuries Resulting from Use of Force (based on incidents)

Use of Force Injuries	2014	2015	2016
Officer Injured	2	1	0
Suspect Injured	6	3	4

In 2016, there were no use of force incidents that resulted in an injury to an officer. In 2016, four (4) use of force incidents resulted in injuries to suspects. A review of the injuries indicated that the injuries were generally minor in nature. It should be noted that in some cases, these injuries could have been sustained by the suspect prior to the contact with the officer(s). Over the past three years, the number of incidents where the officer and/or the suspect was injured has been generally low.

Reasons for the Use of Force (Incidents)

Reasons for Use of Force	2014	2015	2016
Necessary to Effect Arrest	7	2	7
Necessary to Defend Officer	5	1	4
Other	0	3	3

In 2016, the most common reasons for the use of force were: 1) Necessary to Effect an Arrest, 2) Necessary to Defend Officer, and 3) Other. Over the past three years, "Necessary to Effect Arrest" was the most common reason for use of force in 2014 and 2016. In some cases, the numbers may not match up due to some reports having more than one description for the suspect or none being marked on the report.

^{*}All Three (3) Firearm were pointing only (in combination with bodily use of force).

In 2016, the most common officer responses to use of force incidents included: 1) Officer Presence, 2) Verbal or Physical Commands, 3) Assistance from Other Officers, and 4) Takedowns. Officer Presence, Verbal or Physical Commands, Assistance from Other Officers, and Takedowns have been in the top four officer's responses to use of force incidents in 2014 and 2016. In some cases, the numbers may not match up due to some reports having more than one officer response or none being marked on the report.

Use of Force Conclusion

In reviewing the seventeen (17) use of force reports out of the nine (9) use of force incidents that occurred in 2016, it was clear that all policies regarding the use of force were followed. All nine (9) use of force incidents were correctly reported, investigated, and reviewed by the chain of command. All use of force incidents were classified as force reasonable and consistent with policy. It appeared that the level of suspect resistance actions has fluctuated over the past three years. 2016 use of force more mirrored 2014 use of force. This information should be noted by the defensive tactics training staff for future training cycles. Use of force training was conducted with all sworn personnel in 2016 as part of the police department's annual mandatory training cycle. Based on this analysis, use of force training will continue to be a part of the police department's annual mandatory in-service training for sworn personnel. Based on this analysis of use of force, no patterns or trends were identified that would require any further training needs or policy modifications.
