Message from the Chief

Thank you for taking the time to review the 2017 Dublin Police Department Annual Report. Our agency's focus is on providing the highest level of service to our community while working to reduce crime, improve traffic safety actively address drug crimes while remaining prepared to handle major crimes and critical incidents. We accomplish this by adhering to a philosophy of Accountability-Led Policing that provides our entire staff with the accountability necessary to achieve agency goals.

In 2017 we saw a 37.8% reduction in burglaries and breaking and entering; the lowest number recorded in the City since 2009. While we also saw a slight, 8% rise in theft offenses (our most common crime), the number of these types of crimes has continued to trend downwards since 2010. We were also fortunate to see a 2.8% reduction in the overall number of traffic crashes in the City last year. These reductions in all categories of crime since 2007 are significant, especially considering Dublin's population has grown significantly (20.7%) in the last 10 years (MORPC estimates). You can view a historical comparison of our crime statistics, as well as a crime occurrence trend line graph in the charts below.

In 2017 our agency hosted assessors from the Commission for the Accreditation of Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA) in anticipation of our ninth accreditation award, and our first separate accreditation award for our consolidated communications center (the Northwest Regional Emergency Communications Center, or NRECC). As a result we were awarded with Law Enforcement accreditation (with Excellence) and with our first Communications accreditation award. This makes Dublin Police one of only 57 agencies in the US with dual accreditation.

Of note, our NRECC communications center also entered into a partnership agreement in 2017 with the City of Upper Arlington to provide Fire and Police emergency communications services.

Our agency has continued to grow over the last year as well, as we said farewell to several members who retired and welcomed 11 new employees.

I am looking forward to continuing to serve our community as we move forward in 2018. The men and women of the Dublin Police Department remain committed to serving the citizens of Dublin as we move forward into the future.

Heinz von Eckartsberg
Chief of Police

Support Services Bureau

Community Education Unit

The Community Education Unit successfully contributed to the agency's mission in 2017. The CEU Stepped up to cover many patrol shifts in order to reduce overtime and provide some relief for officers in the operations bureau. In 2017 the unit was fully staffed. This allowed for the them to once again provide SROs in each Middle School as well as provide DAPP, PDP, Stranger Danger, Beyond Drivers Ed and ALICE courses for the schools and the community. The CEU also became more involved with Community Relations and helped produce multiple successful public information videos including the "Cruiser Conversation" series.

The CEU presented the Drug Abuse Prevention Program to over 2500 students while providing various other educational programs as well. The unit continued its partnership with Maria's Message while partnering with WBNS channel 10 Television for presentations.

The unit provided 53 Active Shooter presentations and 16 PDP classes to City Departments and the City's corporate partners. The driving simulators were deployed 16 times to various locations and events within the City. The CEU added a stranger danger presentation and Beyond Drivers Education class through a partnership with the Dublin Recreation Center. Both programs were filled to capacity during each presentation.

Officer Chuck Collier was recognized as the Ohio School Resource Officer of the Year and the CEU's partnership with the Dublin Recreation Center resulted in the DRC receiving state wide first place in the category of Law Enforcement with the Ohio Parks and Recreation Association.

Detective Bureau

Of the cases closed in 2017, the Detective Bureau successfully cleared 69% of the burglaries/B&Es and the clearance rate for thefts from vehicles was 58%, while the overall clearance rate for cases was 39%. The detectives continue to assist the CIU Investigators as well as each unit within the department to address crime concerns in the City.

The Bureau's Office Assistant position remains vacant. Filling this position was proposed in 2017; however, it was not approved in the current budget. We will re-introduce this option in 2018.

Detectives attended a number of training classes including the Department hosting the CVSA course which certified Detectives Murphy and Shull. Detective Williams successfully completed his first full year in the bureau and Detective Gilleland continues to be an active member of the Violent Crimes Task force.

The bureau remained busy in 2017 completing numerous background investigations for officers and communications technicians, investigating 18 sex offenses, and 13 death investigations.

Community Impact Unit

In 2017 the Community Impact Unit members remained the same, with no personnel changes. However, this year was the first full year with an investigator assigned full-time on the Delaware County Drug Task Force.

In 2017 the Traffic Enforcement officers were reduced from five to four with the elimination of the canine position. The four remaining officers made 1,763 traffic stops, issued 901 traffic citations and were assigned five (4) formal traffic complaints. These four officers effectively investigated 60 informal complaints, as well as all departmentally received school bus complaints (25). Additionally, traffic officers maintained presence in enforcement in five designated "maintenance zones" throughout the year. These included: Muirfield Drive (north of Brand Road), Shier Rings Road, Woerner-Temple Road, Rings Road (west of Avery Road), Summit view Road. Traffic officers were tasked throughout the year with additional assignments in support of CIU Investigators. These assignments included: plain clothes surveillance and operations, security for controlled purchases, warrant service, and search warrant execution and processing. They successfully integrated with the investigators throughout the year and assisted with helping the unit achieve agency goals.

The CIU Investigators engaged in proactive investigations using a combination of criminal intelligence, human and technical surveillance, undercover operations and standard investigative techniques. Investigators were assigned 33 Projects in 2017 of which 61% resulted in successful clearance by arrest, charge, or Grand Jury summary submitted. It should be noted that two cases from 2017 remain open.

With a full time member assigned to the Delaware County Drug Task force, investigators have had the opportunity to assist in a mutual aid capacity with surveillance operations, controlled purchases, and search warrant execution throughout the year. Additionally, investigators provided Hilliard PD with assistance on surveillance and search warrant execution multiple times during 2017.

During 2017, CIU continued valuable partnerships with Hilliard Police SIU, the Ohio State Highway Patrol's Aviation Unit, the Franklin County H.O.P.E. Task Force, and the Delaware County Drug Task Force. Additionally, CIU worked several operations with the Human Trafficking Task Force (HTTF), Grove City Police SIU, and Zone 1 Community Response Team (CRT) of Columbus Police. These operations included: three prostitution stings (two in Dublin), a drug trafficking case, and several search warrant executions. Lastly, CIU ran a retail theft operation for the first time, targeting thieves at two retail establishments in the Sawmill corridor.

In 2017, the Support Services Bureau was successful in achieving its objectives in contributing to the overall effort in addressing the goals of the agency. The Community Education Unit saw tremendous growth in providing various community resources including the addition of Officer Collier to the Public information function. The feedback from the community on both fronts has been extremely positive. The Detective Bureau continues to be successful although the majority of the detectives have less than five years in the unit. The Community Impact Unit continues to proactively address crime concerns successfully and foster several partnerships with other agencies in Central Ohio. In 2018, each unit will have a new bureau commander which should bring new ideas and promote further growth in the services bureau.

The objective of the program is to produce highly trained positively motivated employees and provide equal and standardized training to all newly hired members. In the past year, these officers have trained five new employee's and have committed countless hours to developing them into well trained officers.

Community Service Officers

In 2017 the Community Service Officer (CSO) Program entered its fifth year serving the City of Dublin as a team of skilled volunteers. The mission of the CSO Program continues to be focused on serving as an example of community partnership by deploying a volunteer force that enhances the department's ability to achieve its goals. The Unit began the year with 12 members and ended with 13. July brought the addition of William Ho and Dave Parsons. ## Technical Services Bureau

The Technical Services Bureau consists of Communications, Records, and the Department's Accreditation function. The Bureau is led by Director Jay Somerville. In 2017 the Communications Section completed its fourth full year operating as a consolidated communications center and added dispatching services for the City of Upper Arlington Police Department. The center, designated now as the Northwest Regional Emergency Communications Center (NRECC), provides 24-7 emergency dispatching services to the following entities:

- Dublin Police
- Hilliard Police
- Upper Arlington Police
- Washington Township Fire
- Norwich Township Fire
- City of Dublin Public Services

In addition to the Bureau Commander, the Communications Section is comprised of an Operations Manager, four Communications Supervisor positions and 26 Communications technician positions. In 2017, the Communications Technicians received 118,983 incoming telephone calls; 40,044 of those were 911 calls.

The department's Records Section maintains all police records in addition to providing clerical support for staff and reception duties.

Accreditation Manager Lynn Odenthal administers the agency's accreditation functions for both police and communications by maintaining all accreditation files and helping to coordinate all the reviews, analysis, reports and training functions necessary to meet all of the industry standards set by the Commission for the Accreditation of Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA). She also supervises five employees in the Department's Records Section, Property Function and coordinates Training for the Department.

The Records Section is staffed by four employees; three employees handle all paperwork, records requests, special duty, training requests and citizen contacts via telephone and in person on a daily basis for the Department. The fourth employee is tasked with purchase order and accounts payable processing for the Department; this position is currently vacant.

The Property Function, one employee, is responsible for intake, processing, storage, tracking and disposal of evidence and other property taken into the Department. Additionally, this employee coordinates disposal of the prescription drug drop box located in the lobby of the Justice Center as well as assisting with drug take back days coordinated in conjunction with SWACO.

In November, the police department's 9th accreditation onsite assessment was conducted by CALEA (Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies). This year's assessment was unique in that the NRECC (Northwest Regional Emergency Communications Center) was audited to receive their first ever accreditation for Public Safety Communications. Only 57 agencies nationwide are accredited on both law enforcement standards and public safety communications standards. The process involves an extensive review by auditors of agency policy, procedures, officer training, equipment and overall efficiency and fiscal responsibility of the police department and communications center. Our on-site assessments went Extremely well. The Department received both law enforcement and communications accreditation awards at the Spring CALEA Conference in Frisco, Texas.
