Description: The stone-masonry-constructed house has a two-story rectilinear core, expanded by a one-story rear ell. The hipped roof is sheathed in standing-seam metal and features small decorative brackets in the eaves. The façade is divided into four fenestration bays, with the doors and windows having operable shutters. The front door is inset on the façade, flanked by sidelights and topped by a transom. Windows are six-over-six wood sashes. A small barn is west of the house. The extant house is FRA-1640-01, and FRA-1641-01 is a barn that appears not extant.

Setting: The property is located on the west side of Dublin Rd. North of the property is a tree row and Cramer Ditch. The lot is otherwise surrounded by modern residences. A dry-stacked stone wall encloses the front yard.
