

EXPLORE Your Dublin Parks

STAFF FAVORITES

Wedgewood Hills Park

4630 Sandwich Court

Travel north along the path to find the Hutchins Open Space: a nature preserve full of wildlife, spring wildflowers and mature trees. Listen to the tranquil waterfalls along the stream. If you look closely, you'll spot a sink hole where the stream disappears.

"BEST HIDDEN GEM"

Donegal Cliffs Park

4460 Donegal Cliffs Drive

Tucked inside one of Dublin's neighborhoods, this park provides spectacular views of the Scioto River. Along the path, pass a fire ring showing where a bridge once spanned the river. At the end of your walk, notice a retired quarry site where limestone was once harvested.

"MOST PEACEFUL"

Indian Run Meadows Park

6675 Fallen Timbers Drive

A peaceful hike through this park leads you past a pond surrounded by ornamental perennial beds with lots of native plants. Take a respite from the bustle of the City and marvel at the mature bald cypress trees along the stream. The paths connect you to Coffman Park and "Red" Trabue so you can continue your journey.

"MOST SCENIC"

Kiwanis Riverway Park

6245 Riverside Drive

Enjoy a peaceful walk along the river under the shade of the mature sycamore trees. Keep your eyes to the sky as eagle sightings are common here. In the spring, look towards the ground to find skunk cabbage — a colorful plant that earns its name from the scent it produces when it blooms!

"BEST BOARDWALK"

M.L. "Red" Trabue Nature Reserve

6835 Avery-Muirfield Drive + 6566 Post Road

Take a stroll through this nature reserve that's home to an arboretum of more than 100 tree species. Stop to smell and touch the plants in the Sensory Garden. Then, finish your trek at the wetland area where you can take a seat along the boardwalk and marvel at the wildlife around you.
