Re: Staff Update – Community Events

Background

This staff update will provide an overview of the Division of Community Events. The update will include information regarding the personnel and organizational structure, as well as an overview of city signature events and other permitted events. Specifically, staff will provide comparative information between the most recent signature events prior to the COVID-19 pandemic (2019) and the modified events held in 2021. Staff will also review plans for signature events in 2022.
